Frequently Asked Questions

Who is Bare Fruit?

Bare Fruit's founders are Washington State organic apple growers, dedicated to environmental sustainability and to providing healthy, nutritious products for families across the country. Bare Fruit is now a part of the Old World family of companies.

What is "bake-dried"?

Bare Fruit is cored, sliced and baked in wood-burning ovens for over 10 hours, at a very low temperature, to preserve nutrients, freshness and taste.

What are some other uses?

Bare Fruit is great for snacks, and can be used as a topping for cereals, yogurt, ice cream and salads.

Do I always get the right amount of product?

Bare Fruit is filled to exactly the stated weight (73 grams); some settling may occur, with some "fines" at the bottom, but always deliver great taste and nutritional value.
